

Basic Horse Program Rules

At Milo Adventist Academy

RIDER acknowledges receipt and understanding of the current Rules. RIDER agrees he/she will be bound and abide by these Rules. RIDER acknowledges the Rules include but are not limited to:

- When riding horses on Milo property a properly fitted helmet must be worn at all times.
- All privately owned horses on Milo property can only be ridden by the contracted owner unless specific permission with signatures is given by: Parent Owner, Student Owner, Rider, Rider's Parent, as well as Program Director.
- While enjoying trail riding on Milo property you must be in a group of at least two individuals or if mixed gender, at least three individuals.
- While working in the arena or round pen you must have another individual present, they do not have to be riding. Mixed gender rule of two same gender or three mixed gender applies.
- Proper clothing and shoes or boots must be worn when riding or working with horses at Milo.
- Arena riding is available outside of class times or scheduled maintenance (please make sure it does not say closed before use).
- When riding, you must clean the arena of any manure your horse left behind, and when outside you must clean manure off any paved roads or parking areas.
- All ball fields, staff lawns (without staff permission), oval, and any other area designated by Maintenance or Grounds Director is OFF LIMITS.

STABLE may revise these Rules from time to time and RIDER agrees any revision shall have the same force and effect as current Rules.
